INSULT FOR CHAIRMAN LEXOW.

Tells Him: "I'm Going to Hold My End Up Here, and Don't You Make any Mistake About It."

Lieut.-Gov. Sheehan and his brother, the Police Commissioner, were among the early arrivals at the headquarters of the Lexow Committee this morning.
It was after 11 o'clock when Mr. Goff arrived. Chairman Lexow and Senators O'Connor, Cantor, Bradley, Robertson and Pound had been in their places ready to go on for some time. In fact, the full Committee was present, with the exception of Senator Easton, for the first time in many sessions, one result of Mr. Goff's new tack in going higher up.

LAWYER GRANT AND JOHN C. SHEEHAN.

Commissioner Sheehan took the stand without any preliminary ceremony, while several affidavits brought in a dozen or more law books and big bundles of documents and placed them on the counsel's table.
"Did you preside at the trial of Capt.
O'Connor?" was the first question asked him.
Instead of answering this, the Commissioner said he wanted to make an explanation in regard to his partnership with ex-Judge Brown. He produced a circular showing that he had gone into partnership with Judge Brown in February, 1922, before he had been appointed Police Commissioner, or, as he said, before he had any idea of receiving the appointment.
He also denied that he had ever put the amount of his share for Long Island city contracts in the hands of the outside of the envelope, which Mr. Goff had tried to bring out at the previous session and further produced a check for $10,000, which he said, "The People against Thomas F.
Werner, in which he claimed that Justice Van Brunt and the Court of Appeals had decided that pool-selling was not illegal."

SENATOR BRADLEY LOOKS AT A CARTOON OF HIMSELF.

"You said that I could not sue such a case," said the Commissioner, "and I want to show you that you are wrong."
"Thank you, Commissioner," you are very kind," said Mr. Goff. "I know the case very well. It was the police case gotten up between the police and the pool-sellers and I remember it very well.
It did not decide that pool-selling was legal, quite the contrary. Will you rest the question on this case," he added, "as to the legality of pool-selling."
"No, sir," said the Commissioner, "I do not want to do this, but I only knew that the decision had something to do with pool-selling."
Returning to the trial of Capt. O'Connor, the witness requested that the charge against him be referred to the grand jury with the running of the boats between St. George and the foot of Whitehall street, noticing any appreciable change in the management of the ferry.
"That was the first question asked at the trial," he said, "and I was considered the ferry, will be considered." It is understood that the new company is willing to give a fair rental for the slips and boats General Supt. Frank Gannon, of the Rapid Transit Company, declined to discuss the subject today.
"What is now conjecture will be certainty next Thursday. Wait until then."

BUYERS BARNUM'S INTEREST.

Bailey Now Sole Owner of "The Greatest Show on Earth." An arrangement was effected to-day between the heirs and executors of the late P. T. Barnum and J. A. Bailey by which the latter becomes the absolute owner of all the interests in the show entitled "The Greatest Show on Earth," owned by Mr. Barnum and Mr. Bailey.
Strikers Return to Work.
WOODS (By Associated Press).
The casualties of the strike of the workers at the New York City Police Department, who have been on a strike, resumed work to-day. The strikers will return to work to-morrow. The strike had been called off by the police department, and the strikers will go back to work to-morrow.

Accused of Assaulting a Girl.

ELIZABETH N. J., Oct. 29.—Police Justice Nell to-day held Solomon Burges, colored, on a charge of assaulting Alice Whiting, aged twelve years, last November. Burges said the girl his name was Alice Johnson. Burges is a married man.

BREAD SHOULD BE CHEAPER.

Tricks of the Trade Exposed by the Agricultural Department.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The Agricultural Department has given out a bulletin on "the cost of bread" taken from the forthcoming report of Prof.
W. O. Atwater on the nutritive value of foods. It says:

"In practice 100 pounds of flour will make from 135 to 137 pounds of bread, average being about 136 pounds. Flour such as is used by bakers is now purchased in the Eastern States at not over $4 per barrel. This would make the cost of flour in a pound of bread about one and one-half cents. Allowing one-half cent for the shortening and salt, which is certainly very liberal, the material for a pound of bread would not cost more than two cents."
"The average weight of a number of shipments of ten-cent loaves purchased in Middletown, Conn., was one and one-fourth pounds. This makes the price to the consumer eight cents per pound.
The price of bread and the size of the loaf are paid the same now as when four cost twice as much."

GRAND JURY TO HEAR BROWN.

Held for the Big Stamp Theft, but Harvey Discharged.

United States Commissioner Shields this afternoon resumed the examination of Harry Lionel Brown charged with receiving 30,000 of the large quantity of two-cent stamps stolen from the United States Bureau of Printing and Engraving in Washington, D. C., by W. B. Smith and George Longstreet.
L. E. Schreiner, of Austin, Nichols & Co., testified to buying 3,000 two-cent stamps from Brown on Oct. 4. Brown gave him 5 per cent. off for cash. J. T.
Hoyt, 184 Broadway, on Oct. 6, bought 500 of two-cent stamps and shortly before that $50 worth, at 5 per cent.
Fifty-eight street, also bought two-cent stamps from Brown at 5 per cent. off.
Chief of the Secret Service, P. P.
Hazen, stated that the actual number of two-cent stamps stolen from the Washington Bureau was $2,500.
On motion of his attorney, Charles Harvey, similar charges as Brown, was ordered discharged by the Commissioner, there being no definite evidence against him.
Brown was held for the United States Grand Jury in $2,500.

DEATH AT A THEATRE FIRE.

One Man Burned to a Crisp and Others Jump From Windows.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 29.—An early morning fire at the Garden Theatre, Fourteenth and Chestnut streets, resulted in the loss of one life and the destruction of the building. Several persons were killed, and many others injured. The fire started in the theatre, and spread rapidly, burning the building to a crisp. One man was burned to a crisp, and others jumped from the windows. The damage to property was about $100,000.

TEKULSKY AS AN EXPERT.

He Testifies Concerning Fights in Harrisons.

Morris Tekulsky, who recently figured in a notorious affair with Police Justice Divver, was before the Excise Board today as an expert as to how saloon-keepers should be run when fights are going on in them.
The occasion was the hearing in the case of the City of Glenside for the renewal of a saloon license for 152 South Street. This is the place where a fight between a Greek, was assaulted on Oct. 8.
Tekulsky was asked if saloon-keepers could always stop fights in their places.
"We try to stop them, but can't always," he said.
"Do saloon-keepers ever take a hand in the fights themselves?" asked Commissioner Divver.
"Sometimes we have to," he said.
But just here Tekulsky saw all the Commissioner had to say, and he vouchsafed no further information on the subject.

SUICIDE HER MANIA.

Mrs. Grundtvig Attempted Her Life While Coming from Denmark.

Corner Kane, of Brooklyn, this morning held an inquest into the suicide of Mrs. Alha Grundtvig, of 386 Fifth avenue. Mrs. Grundtvig was twenty-five years old and pretty.
She lived with her husband, Axel Grundtvig, in furnished room. She took her life early yesterday morning by hanging herself from the trapeze with a black kerchief.
Testimony showed that Mrs. Grundtvig was suffering from mania, and had been coming from Denmark by drinking carbolio acid. She had threatened many times to take her life.

THE STATEN ISLAND FERRY.

It May Change Hands Without the Knowledge of Commuters.

From all that transpires on the surface in the negotiations which have been pending for more than a month between the B. & O. R. R. and the New York Harbor and Staten Island Ferry Company, it appears likely that the Staten Island Rapid Transit Company will give way to the new company, without the public who patronize the boats between St. George and the foot of Whitehall
in the management of the ferry.
"That was the first question asked
at the trial," he said, "and I was considered the ferry, will be considered."

WHO DELAYED ACTION?

"Was the Board ever convened to act upon the question of Capt. O'Connor's guilt or innocence?"
"Not that I remember,"
"Can it be put off indefinitely?"
"No, sir, I don't think so."
"Do you know of any reason why it was delayed?"

ALBANY, Oct. 28.—Argument in the appeal of John J. McKane from a verdict of conviction for felony rendered by the Court of Oyer and Terminer of Kings County was begun before the Court of Appeals to-day. Benjamin F. Tracy and E. M. Shepard appearing for the people, as against the appeal, and Edward James George W. Brenner, Matthew Hale and Albert C. Tennant appearing for the defendant and appellant.

The appeal, if sustained by this Court, would result in the release of McKane from Sing Sing, where he is now serving a sentence of six years on the indictment charging him with procuring the provision of election to violate the provisions of the Election Law.
Argument was begun by Matthew Hale, in the absence of Col. James, for the appellant. He argued at great length, and the case will last all day and probably to-morrow.
